Beware! Dodgy digital deals can get your bank account frozen

AHMEDABAD: Picture this: You're enjoying a delightful family lunch at a local restaurant, ready to settle the bill using the unified payment interface (UPI), only to find yourself plunged into a nightmare of frozen bank accounts and police investigations. Pratinth Shah, 52, found herself in this situation after her UPI transaction declined. A call to her husband revealed that her UPI account had been implicated in an online fraud case, a consequence of her teenage son's occasional use of the account to purchase bitcoins. As the day unfolded, she received more shocking news: Along with her account, the police also froze the bank accounts of her father-in-law to whom she had transferred money, the provision store she shopped at, and the gymnasium where she paid the membership fee online.

This unsettling experience isn't a work of fiction. It's a stark reminder of the real and increasing threat of cybercrime. In a world where digital transactions have become routine, the popular UPI payment system and peer-to-peer (P) platforms for bitcoin trading offer convenience in paying money to acquaintances and strangers. However, it could also put you in the crosshairs of the police and the banks.

In financial fraud cases, scamsters often transfer money to separate bank accounts, buy products or invest in various services. Subsequently, when police receive a complaint, they quickly ask banks to freeze the accounts to which the swindled money has been diverted. Apart from UPI payments, the police also freeze accounts that received deposits through NEFT, RTGS, and cheques. To prevent further diversion of the swindled money, all accounts linked to the one in which the money arrived or was sent are also frozen.

Every day, about 355 to 477 people are conned by cybercriminals in Gujarat. In just one week, the police froze the bank accounts of 1,065 to 1,431 individuals. Explaining the intricate web of cybercrime, DySP of Gujarat CID's cyber cell, B M Tank, details how cybercriminals employ multiple bank accounts to obscure their money trail after swindling victims. The stolen money undergoes a labyrinthine journey, passing through layers of accounts before being withdrawn from ATMs or converted into bitcoins, he says, adding: "To trace this complex trail, investigators often have to navigate up to 8 levels of accounts beyond the fraudster's initial account." CID (crime) inspector Panjaj Patil, who oversees the 1930 cyber cell helpline, emphasizes that freezing bank accounts pre-emptively is the primary strategy to thwart cybercriminals.

He advises individuals to exercise caution when accepting financial connections on UPI and similar platforms. "Such transactions involve risk because a link is formed between your account and theirs. So, if they do anything wrong, it might create problems for you," he warns. Tank's guidance is crystal clear: Refrain from using your primary salary account for P bitcoin transactions or linking it to your UPI. He says, "Maintain some funds in an account to avoid problems in case your account gets frozen."

Air fares soar, hotels full as 1-Day weekend nears

AHMEDABAD: A quick monsoon escapee over the extended weekend of August 12-13 will cost at least 50% higher than usual as hotels are nearly full and air fares to domestic and international destinations have skyrocketed. Many hotels are witnessing a double-digit increase in booking inquiries.

"There is a significant increase in customers opting for luxury and upscale accommodations during this period. Despite the skyrocketing air fares, there is a marked rise in last-minute bookings for destinations like Mount Abu, Udaipur, Kumbhalgarh, Jodhpur, Jaipur and even Khandala and Lonavala," said Manish Sharma, chairman, Tourist Development Society. International bookings are also high, especially to destinations like Dubai, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam and Phuket. "Better flight connectivity means that more people are travelling abroad during the peak season," said another Ahmedabad-based travel operator. City-based professional Deboshri Das is taking a road trip to Goa with her husband and her pet, Mojo. "We try to travel with Mojo at least once a year. Since the weather has cooled down, we are looking forward to the trip and having some downtime on the beaches," said Das. Ambawadi resident Janki Rathod is headed to Dehradun to take in the serenity of the lush mountains. "This year, the season is buzzing. Many hotel bookings were made in June itself and overall, tariffs in hotels across popular nearby destinations have increased by 25-30%. In wake of the high air fares, which have grown by nearly 50%, many travellers are opting for road trips to nearby destinations," said Virendra Shah, chairman, Travel Agents Association of India (TAAI).
